

Who Began the Insult Business?

The Ohio County News of July 29th, published of, and concerning us, as follows, displaying it in a double-column form:

The Herald Nation.—The Devil and his Lies.—The Little Concern Around the Corner Underlies the Lie upon Dr. Meador.—Read Now, and Say If it is Honest, O, Ye Citizens.

1st. As to Court of Common Pleas in Fayette county. The HERALD's charge is a lie.

2nd. As to pay of Sergeant-at-Arms, Lie No. 2. How are you Pinky?

3rd. As to paying boys $3 per day, Lie No. 3. Didn't vote for it. How are you Pinky?

4th. As to increase of Librarian's pay. Did not vote. Lie No. 4. How are you Pinky?

5th. Absent at Roll-call. Never except when on duty in Committees. Lie No. 5. How are you Pinky?

6th. Absent 75 times. An infernal lie. How are you Pinky?

7th. As to mileage. Lie, as usual. How are you Pinky?

"The way of an eagle in the air, fish in the sea, or serpent on the rock, Solomon could not understand any more than a maid with a man." If the devil, the father of lies, can understand the HERALD's underly present management, may have our head for a foot-ball.

What we said in regard to Dr. Meador, except two small errors, one favorable to the Doctor which were explained in our extra of July 31st, was, and is, every word true, and we have the records now on our table to prove it, but still he wrote and published, or rather suffered to be written and published, the above ungentlemanly, insulting, untruthful, dishonest, unmanly, outrageous, diabolical, hypocritical, infernal, devilish, wicked lot of lies, and farther on, in the same paper, he gives the lie to his No. 24th by publishing the following, which is farther than we ever went, for we said he failed to vote to cut down, and the News says he voted against cutting down. Here is what he said in contradiction of his charge against us:

When it was proposed to retain all the high salaries in the House, where the place was held by a Blue Grass aristocrat, and cut down the Sergeant-at-Arms, a poor man, Dr. Meador did vote against, and will next winter.

After such a personal attack upon us we thought proper to say something in defense, which makes the News man boil over fearfully at our retorts. Now, if the News did not like the insult business, why did it begin?

A PROMINENT Republican of this State, suggests that the Republican "meadow" lies along the Salt river borders.

JUDGE CASWELL BENNETT was re-elected Common Pleas Judge in the Henderson District over S. B. Vance by a majority of 695.

THE yellow fever is still raging at Memphis, 45 new cases Monday. Over 500 cases and 100 deaths to date. It has been declared epidemic. It is not epidemic or spreading elsewhere.

THE Democrat of McLean county have cause to rejoice. They elected their nominee for the Legislature, W. L. Blairst, by 50 majority. Well done for old McLean.

THE Editor of the HERALD is not well. He called on his family physician to know what the trouble was, and was informed that it was "hay fever", induced by extra labors in mowing the "Meadow" on the 4th day of August. "Well, well, well, who'd a thought it."

In 1875 McCreary's majority over Harlan in Ohio county was 118. In 1878 Blackburn's majority over Evans is 371. In 1875 the Republicans had no Ohio County News as their organ. In 1878 they had, hence the increase in the Democratic majority. Blackburn's majority is several thousand larger than Leslie's or McCreary's, and will probably reach 45,000.

In 1870 the Democrats carried Ohio county by an average majority of 600 or 700. In 1871, the very next year afterwards, Dr. J. W. Meador was the Republican candidate for the Legislature. He was beaten by Hon. J. S. Taylor only about 130 votes. Dr. Meador in that canvass managed his own race, paddled his own canoe, and there was no paper published here called the Ohio County News, assuming to be his organ. Hence there was a very small majority against him.

In 1873 Dr. J. W. Meador was the Republican candidate for the Legislature and W. D. Coleman received the unanimous nomination of the Democrats, and yet Meador was elected by over 200 majority. The reason is plain. He was not the candidate of an unpopular ring and did not have the dead weight of that viperous, slanderous sheet, the Ohio County News to carry.

In 1877 Dr. J. W. Meador was the Republican candidate for the Legislature, and although a vigorous fight was made against him, he was elected by over 50 majority. In that canvass he managed his own race and had no dead weights to carry. He was not saddled down with Peanuts, Primrose Hubbard, Renegade A. H. Cummins, and that filthy, unscrupulous sheet, the Ohio County News.

In 1879 Dr. J. W. Meador was a candidate for the Legislature on the Republican ticket. He was booted and spurred, manipulated and managed by the little Chicago peanuts. He was gowned by the renegade, Cummins, and bedanned all over with the slime of the Ohio County News, and the result, as might have been expected, was an glorious defeat. Meador had as well try to swim the Ohio river, with a grind-stone tied to his neck, as to expect to be elected to the Legislature and carry the dead weight of Hubbard, Cummins and the Ohio County News.

RESCUE. Republicans of Ohio county, that Barrett desires your support to sustain his paper by branding every Republican in the county a liar. —Ohio County News.

Remember, honest men, that when Renegade A. H. Cummins writes and publishes the above statement, he is a liar himself.

THE bar-rooms of Cromwell are safer off, and Hon. R. P. Hocker's other way! —Ohio County News.

That is about as true as his statement that we called all the Republicans of Ohio county, liars. Mr. Hocker does not drink or treat, and did not, at Cromwell or any other place, in the late canvass; but Dr. Meador and his friends, treated promiscuously all over the country, and especially on election day.

THE Democratic statesmen were hardly able to stay on the ground when they came into town into allowing an idiot to vote. What could have happened if both idiots had come up together? —Ohio County News.

1st. As to Court of Common Pleas in Fayette county. The HERALD's charge is a lie.

2nd. As to pay of Sergeant-at-Arms, Lie No. 2. How are you Pinky?

3rd. As to paying boys $3 per day, Lie No. 3. Didn't vote for it. How are you Pinky?

4th. As to increase of Librarian's pay. Did not vote. Lie No. 4. How are you Pinky?

5th. Absent at Roll-call. Never except when on duty in Committees. Lie No. 5. How are you Pinky?

6th. As to mileage. Lie, as usual. How are you Pinky?

7th. As to the way of an eagle in the air, fish in the sea, or serpent on the rock, Solomon could not understand any more than a maid with a man." If the devil, the father of lies, can understand the HERALD's underly present management, may have our head for a foot-ball.

Here is what he said in contradiction of his charge against us:

In another column will be found a statement of the county vote. Dr. Meador gets a larger vote than ever before polled for a Republican. —Ohio County News.

Wrong again. Well, who is astonished? The fact is the News has mis-represented things so long it cannot publish the truth. In 1878 R. P. Rowe, a Republican candidate for sheriff, got 1548 out of a total vote of 3,409, while the Democrats voted two weak-minded men and a hermaphrodite, while the Democrats voted two persons who are weak-minded; so we cannot see any room for the News to boast.

RESCUE. Republicans of Ohio county, that Barrett desires your support to sustain his paper by branding every Republican in the county a liar. —Ohio County News.

THE Democracy of Ohio are indebted to John Barrett, of the Hartford Herald, for the defeat of Dr. Meador, Republican candidate for Representative.

He worked with a vim and effectiveness that has seldom been witnessed in any campaign. Let him be crowned with bays of gratitude. —Hopkinsville New Era.

Death of F. G. Wilson.

I deem it improper to contribute any more "Thoughts as They Occur on the Corners" until an apology is made to the public for the unfortunate typographical error in the last paragraph of No. 13, by which the whole paragraph was rendered ridiculous and absurd.

Diogenes.

We regret exceedingly that the typographical error occurred as stated above. In the hurry and excitement of election news coming in we read the proof hurriedly and failed to notice the error of the use of the word "keeping" where it should have been "kissing." We humbly ask the apology of our readers and of our esteemed and intellectual friend, Diogenes.

Apology.

The Herald, having more than double the circulation in Ohio county over any paper published anywhere, it is by far the best Advertising Medium through which to reach the people of Ohio county.

Business men should make a note of this.

—Dance to-night, go.

—Much cool these nights.

—Hop to-night, at Masonic Hall.

—Chew Jackson's Sweet Navy Tobacco.

—Born to the wife of J. P. Sanderfer, Thursday, July 31st, a son.

—We are glad to see deputy sheriff, Bunker, up and out again.

—Don't fail to attend the Circus Saturday and subscribe for the HERALD.

—Mr. J. S. Lunn has contributed a specimen of his iron ore to our cabinet of wonders.

—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davis will please accept our thanks for a basket of nice vegetables.

—Companions in arms, is what the boys call them now. They used to call them sweethearts.

—Our worthy citizen and druggist, Jas. W. Ford, is making a cement cellar underneath his drug store.

—Stuttering cured by Bate's Application. Send for description to Simpson & Co., Box 236, New York.

—The tooth carpenter, Dr. Geo. E. Stowers, is coming. He will be here Friday next. Get your molars fixed up.

—Quite a large number of the young people of town, left yesterday to attend the Baptist Association at Bethelburna church, Davies county.

—Prof. J. H. Burnett, of Auburn, Logan county, will lecture on education at Cromwell to-night. Turn out and give him a good audience.

—The programmes for the Ohio County Fair are out. The fair will commence Saturday, September 30th, and continue five days. The premiums are liberal.

—Mr. J. Edwin Rowe has been appointed Public Administrator and Guardian of Ohio County. He will also administer on other estates when desired.

—Dr. Goo. E. Stowers, a well known first-class dentist, will be here on Friday next, August 15th, and will remain a few days only, and will do any work in his line.

—J. F. Hardman's picture gallery will be in Cromwell until after the circus on the 18th, and then it will open on the 20th of August, in Beaver Dam, and will remain there 12 days.

—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Capt. A. Litter, who is a chance for you to buy a good home at a fair price on easy terms. For particulars see advertisement and poster.

—On Saturday, August the 30th, 1879, at 3 o'clock, P. M., on the grounds of Dr. J. H. Taylor and family, of Owensesboro, are in town, the guests of Judge Dr. S. Moseley and family.

—Mr. J. B. Woodward, accompanied by Miss Ella Pirtle, of Cromwell, made a short visit to the HERALD office one day last week.

—Mrs. C. Morton, Treasurer Ohio County Fair Co.

—Dr. Pendleton performed a very critical surgical operation last Tuesday week by cutting a cancer from the face of Judge Townsend. The operation was very painful, but the Judge bore it with fortitude. He is, we are glad to learn, doing well.

—The Ohio County Fair will begin September 30, 1879, instead of October 7, as heretofore announced, and will continue five days.

—SAM K. COX, Pres.

—Trains are run daily on the Owensboro and Nashville railroad, making connection with trains on the P. & E. road, at Owensesboro Junction. Passengers on both trains west, get dinner at the Sandusky House, Owensesboro Junction.

—We invite the attention of our readers to the change of the time of holding the picnic at Bennett's Grove. It has been changed to Saturday, August 23d, on account of the Circus and menagerie conflicting with it at Hartford on that day.

—Mr. Wm. Hardwick, of this place, has a young chicken that was caught for dinner last Sunday, but upon examination it was found that said birdie had not the shadow or sign of a wing. He is just beginning to try to crow but not having the wings to flap he cannot crow right.

—The ladies, or all those who feel an interest in the matter, are requested to meet at Judge Gregory's this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to take steps for having a supper sometime soon, in the interest of the Baptist Church here. A full attendance is required.

—MARRIED—July 14th, 1879, by Rev. Wm. Stevens, at the residence of Joseph Bennett, in Ohio county, Ky., Mr. Wm. A. Edwards, of McLean county, to Miss Mattie J. M. Hughes. Attendants: Miss Lula Bennett and Mr. D. J. Lightfoot. May their happiness and prosperity be all their fondest hopes ever dreamed of.

—The above notice was mislaid or it would have appeared at the proper time. —Ed.

—Passengers on the P. & E. R. R. going West should not fail to take dinner at the Sandusky House, Owensesboro Junction. It is the best place on the P. & E. road to get a good meal. Do not take our word for it, but try it yourself.

—The following marriage licenses have been issued since the last report: W. S. Morgan and Miss Sallie M. Simmons, George P. Gardner and Miss Orleana Collins, Matthias Baize and Miss Sarah E. Ashby, Manfield Bradwood and Miss Martha E. Warnell.

—We regret to chronicle the death of Carrington daughter of L. and Sophia Rosenberg, which occurred at Grayson, on the 6th inst. The sweet little babe was just five months old, the day it died. Its death was caused by cholera infantum. It was interred in the Hartford cemetery on the day after its death.

—The Ohio County Teachers' Institute was held here last week, and was well attended and was quite a success. Many teachers of note, from a distance, among whom was Prof. J. B. Reynolds, of New Albany, Ind. Alfred Ashby, Jr., was appointed Secretary. We did not get the proceedings in time to insert this week, but will give them in full, in our next issue.

—The most delicious grapes we have seen this season were received yesterday. They were grown in the vineyard of Judge Moseley, of this place, and a basket full of them sent us by his estimable wife. The luscious fruit was greatly appreciated, and Mrs. Moseley has our thanks for her kind remembrance.

—We call the attention of parents, guardians, and persons who have in hand the education of our youths to the advertisement of the Auburn High School. We met Prof. Burnett and Dawson, the principals of said school at our institute here last week, and are very favorably impressed with them. Prof. Burnett has had an experience of nine years, seven years of which he has spent in the same position in the same school he now occupies. Prof. Dawson has had an experience of several years also, and they have this institute leased for ten years more, so that it can be seen at a glance that the Auburn High School is a permanent fixture. The principals, being both young men, have in view more than the mere getting of money for present purposes. They have an ambition to succeed and build up a reputation upon which to depend in the future. We do not believe you will regret patronizing the Auburn High School. Try it once and see.

—The programs for the Ohio County Fair are out. The fair will commence Saturday, September 30th, and continue five days. The premiums are liberal.

—Mr. J. Edwin Rowe has been appointed Public Administrator and Guardian of Ohio County. He will also administer on other estates when desired.

—Stuttering cured by Bate's Application. Send for description to Simpson & Co., Box 236, New York.

—The tooth carpenter, Dr. Geo. E. Stowers, is coming. He will be here Friday next. Get your molars fixed up.

—Quite a large number of the young people of town, left yesterday to attend the Baptist Association at Bethelburna church, Davies county.

—Dr. Goo. E. Stowers, a well known first-class dentist, will be here on Friday next, August 15th, and will remain a few days only, and will do any work in his line.

—Mrs. Daniel Wise is still very low, and but little hope is entertained of her recovery.

—We had the pleasure last Saturday of a call from Misses Sue Taylor and Verda Gentry.

—Prof. W. G. Benton, the great Chinese Lecturer, who has been quite sick, we are glad to know is up and out again.

—Dr. J. H. Taylor and family, of Owensesboro, are in town, the guests of Judge Dr. S. Moseley and family.

—Mr. J. B. Woodward, accompanied by Miss Ella Pirtle, of Cromwell, made a short visit to the HERALD office one day last week.

—Miss Lula Trible and Josie Landrum, of Calhoun, Ky., are in town, the former the guest of the family of Mr. H. D. Taylor, and the latter the guest of the family of Mr. Wm. Hardwick.

—John C. Herndon, Esq., representing the firm of Bradley & Gilbert, Louisville, was in town last week. John informs us that he is still running for the office of Public Printer—having been a candidate ever since the last session of the Legislature.

—C. E. Crane, Esq., of Louisville, representing the wholesale hardware-house of Tarwater, Snyder & Rankins, was in town last week, and called to see us, while he was here.

—Mr. Z. A. Rosenberg, of Gallatin, Tenn., was in town last Thursday and Friday. He was called to this place to attend the funeral of his little niece, daughter of L. Rosenberg.

—We omitted last week to note the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. E. Small and Mrs. H. Small, wife of our venerable townsmen and merchant, Mr. Henry Small. They will remain at Mr. Caleb Small's, and will remain the balance of the summer.

—The habit of body becomes evil, much evil is inflicted on the system. The stomach becomes dyspeptic, bilious symptoms develop themselves, the circulation is contaminated, and the nerves share in the general disorder. It is of the utmost importance that the bowel be kept clean, healthy and speedily assimilated when they grow old.

—The corrective agent here adopted for this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a wholesome, non-griping vegetable laxative, worth all the rasping cathartics invented since the time of Paracelsus. People who have been in the habit of taking them, will call on all other drugs and cheap nostrums for constipation, should abandon such hurtful and useless medicines, and substitute for them this pleasant and gentle aperient, which not only produces the purgative effect naturally, but also strengthens while it regulates the bowels, stomach and liver. It moreover cures and prevents intermitent and remittent fevers, gout, rheumatism, debility and urinary troubles.

—The ladies, or all those who feel an interest in the matter, are requested to meet at Judge Gregory's this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to take steps for having a supper sometime soon, in the interest of the Baptist Church here. A full attendance is required.

—H. E. Walker, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lizzie, left Monday for Louisville, to take in the excursion to Put-in-bay. Mr. Walker will return to Elizabethport, where he will attend Circuit Court, and Miss Lizzie will return to Warsaw, Ky., where she will remain for several months, visiting relatives and friends.

—That whole-soul, liberal-hearted and popular drummer, Joseph Muhattan, representing Hart & Co. hardware merchants, of Louisville, Ky., was in town last week. Joe is one of the best fellows in the world and is a successful commercial tourist. Come again soon, Joe, and be sure and call at the HERALD office for your visits are appreciated.

Go to G. A. Platt's and get the good, old pure Magnolia Whisky at $1.40 a gallon, or 5 cents a drink.

The Trans-Atlantic Show.

Next Saturday, August 16th, the great Trans-Atlantic Allied Shows, Menagerie, Aviary, Caravan and Double Circuses will exhibit in Hartford, giving two performances, afternoon and evening. It promises much, and, as the outfit is entirely new, our people may expect a rich treat.

In looking over their advertisement we recognize the names of many star performers in their different branches, some of whom have been delighting the circus-going public, both in this and other countries, for many years past. Among them is the name of Miles Orton, the recognized champion black rider of the world, who is said by the press, where the show has exhibited, to be even excelling his performances of past seasons, which is indeed saying much. The menagerie is large and complete, comprising some thirty cages of animals; while the circus department, under the management of Orton, assisted by four first-class clowns, has no superior in the land. Remember the day and date, Saturday, August 16th and turn out in the forenoon, thus being on hand to witness the gorgeous street parade, which is spoken of by our exchanges as being something grand. One fifty cent ticket admits you to all the different departments, and will insure you three hours of entertainment.

EDUCATIONAL.

EDITED BY W. L. HAWKINS.

In order to govern well, we must first learn to obey.

EVERYBODY is preaching economy, but who is practicing it?

COMPLETE self-control is a sine qua non in the make-up of a good teacher.

Therefore I say, and the more experience I have with children, the less disposed to corporal punishment in schools.

BETTER to be deceived a thousand times, than be so sharp as to keep your children in constant dread of detection and punishment.

A GOOD teacher will, first, know himself; second, know his pupils; third, know what to teach; fourth, know how to teach it; fifth, teach it.

The good work done by our teachers becomes more and more apparent all the time; and its influence is shown in a more marked degree than ever before.

A. C. THANK YOU, but this column is reserved from advertisements, and in order to get yours into the HERALD, you must apply to the Messrs. Barrett. We will endorse their action.

PREDATORS are being changed and exposed on all hands in the political world. We will deem him a benefactor, who will now point out instances of political honesty and integrity.

OWING to my living at such a distance from the printing office some of my articles appear out of season. No great harm in that, for we are not admonished to be in season and out of season?

If the teachers will inform us, we will publish, gratuitously, their names and the numbers of the districts in which they have secured schools for the fall and winter, and their P. O. address. This will be an advantage to them and to many others.

Don's scold? Don't find fault, don't complain. On the contrary, be mild, be gentle, be firm, be hopeful. As the master so the pupil—be prompt, be diligent, be cheerful, and your pupils, catching the inspiration of your example, will soon pride themselves on their deportment and good work.

ENCOURAGE your children to feel easy in their intercourse with you, and to approach you freely upon all subjects that they do not fully comprehend. You will thus gain their confidence and trust, and your field of usefulness is rendered fruitful. Adopt for your ruling motto: "Stir the children to come unto me, and I will receive them."

Be Wise and Happy.

If you will stop all your extravagance and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cures—all that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for your ailments, you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense.

The greatest remedy for this, the wise, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.

Republican Frauds.

There was never in this country a more important election than that of Buttermere to Cincinnati, on Saturday, October 1. The facts as brought out before the Investigating Committee are startling. Saturday it was developed that an employee in a tobacco factory was paid $125 for electioneering for Buttermere. For this sum of money he turned in from the factory one hundred and thirty-five votes for the Republican candidate. Twenty-five dollars was paid by Buttermere himself.

The Congressional Investigating Committee is doing good work in exposing the frauds of the Republicans at the Congressional elections in Cincinnati last October. See how the "gilded jade" of the Democrat was exposed.

All the old men in town who have been professionals in ward politics, and to whom bribery and corruption are the ordinary processes of business; all the ballot-box stuffing experts and the sharpers in fact; swearing; the blackmailers of criminals, who set up dignified types of business; the bloodsuckers of gamblers and prostitutes; the pimps and the whole kennel of dirty dogs, are assuming that Ben Buttermere's many truth tellings the other day was something awful.

This is shallow indignation in behalf of a politician who employed such men as his agents, and who, and is now out of the Democratic party, and the notorious negro Pickett, who keeps a miscegenation den—Cincinnati Uniontown.

OWENSBOURG AND NASHVILLE.

The Stockholders Meet at the Galt House and Determine to Complete Their Road Immediately.

Yesterday morning the stockholders of the Owensboro and Nashville railroad held a meeting at the Galt House, to determine, as had been advertised, whether it would be advisable to continue the construction of the road or not. About twenty of the stockholders were present, and the majority voted to continue the road. Mr. J. G. Barrett was elected Chairman and Geo. T. Wood, Secretary.

After a deliberation of some time the stockholders came to the conclusion that the best plan would be to proceed with the construction at once. Thirteen miles of the road out of Owensboro are completed and intended for a four-mile stretch to the State line is graded. They propose to complete the road in a first-class manner, furnishing it with the best steel rails, stone ballast, etc. The business of contracting was left to the Board of Directors, and they hope to have the whole road completed in a month.

Following were the directors present: E. W. Cole, President of the road; T. D. Flippin, J. H. Ambrose, of Nashville; J. G. Barrett, of Louisville; J. J. Brown, of New Albany, and T. S. Anderson, of Owensboro. The meeting adjourned to meet October 6.—Courier-Journal of Aug. 6th.

To Cure a Cold.

A bad cold, like measles or mumps, or other similar ailments will run its course in about ten days, in spite of all the remedies and measures we can employ. It may be spared to be increased by cutting a cold short in the following case and simple manner: On the first day of taking cold there is a very strong desire to have a hot bath. The moment you observe this go to your room and stay there; keep it at such temperature as will entirely prevent this chilly feeling, even if it requires a hundred degrees of Fahrenheit. In addition to this put your feet in water half-deep, as hot as you can bear, adding a few drops of oil of wintergreen to the water. For a quarter of an hour, so that the water shall be hotter when you take your feet out than when you put them in; then dry them thoroughly, and put on warm, thick woollen stockings; even if it be summer, for summer colds are the most dangerous; and for twenty-four hours eat not an atom of food, drink nothing but tea, and wash down of any kind of warm tea, and at the end of that time, if not sooner, the cold will be effectively broken without any medicine whatever.

Efficient as the above measures are, not one out of a thousand will attend to them, led on as men are that a cold will pass away in a few days. The cold will move and then pass under the eye of a wise man who does not choose the double dose of taking physic and dying too.—Hall's Journal of Health.

The Green-Harris.

The Bath County Reporter of July 12th, after commenting upon the deposition of Judge Nesbitt, Reuben Gudell and Thos. J. Young, jr., in the Green-Harris libel suit, says:

"Green got so sick of Nesbitt's evidence that he left the room and was there but little of the afternoon, being unable to face honest men at truth after truth from the lips of the new witness. He was silent, and after a while got into a flimsy, tinsey argument, until the very inner court was reached, and he held up as the lowly malinger and villain he has proven himself all through life, and while in the room he could look no man in the eye as an honest man, but with his hang-dog countenance he was a happy child, the natural condition of infancy being one of joyous activity."

We clip the above from that excellent journal, The American Journal of Education, published at St. Louis. Too much cannot be said of the importance of home influences and home training for children. Their whole future depends more upon this, than any other teaching; yet it is the subject which receives the least consideration.

The Institute makes system in country schools possible. Plans are agreed upon, and all the teachers of the county are trained to carry out these plans. Evidently no other agency can ever take the place of the Institute.

All properly conducted schools, both public and private, train to habits of industry, promptness and fidelity. They are worth a great deal more than they cost for their moral influence, and their direct influence for good is beyond all human calculation."

To keep the professional teacher harmonized with the mighty army of progress is necessary. Association, mental conflict, observation, comparison—these are conditions of professional growth. Each teacher needs the experience and aid of all teachers.

Success or failure, and the sooner the better, the idea must be abandoned that a public free school is in any sense a charity school. The elements of cooperation for the sake of economy and economy of effort of the system is not an element of charity. Neither is that of self-protection, which is the inescapable basis on which the State rests its school legislation. Charity is one thing; but these are quite other things. Charity schools have their day and place, but it is not in America, nor in this century.

An Appreciated Compliment.

John Barrett's Hartford Herald is one of the newest and most beautifully printed papers in the State. The elements of cooperation are in every department for several years and now its circulation has grown so large that the proprietor has been compelled to purchase a power press and greatly increase his facilities for printing. We are rejoiced to see that brother Barrett's effort to give Ohio county a strictly first-class paper are being so liberally rewarded.—Hopewell New Era.
